

Career Exploration & Related Topics

Looking for a guest speaker to talk with your students about careers? How career skills apply to what students are studying in math, science, English or social studies? Discuss keys to successful employability, resume writing, interviewing skills, personal finance...

Here are just some examples of opportunities available to you and your students.

Learn more at www.workandlearnnow.com

Career Exploration

accounting * advertising/sales * agriculture/horticulture * arts and culture archeology * attorney/legal field * audiology * auto dealer * auto repair * aviation banking and credit unions * bureau of land management * child care professions city planning * communications * construction/trades * correctional facilities cosmetology * culinary * customer service/call centers * dentistry economic development * education-all levels * emergency response/paramedic engineers-civil/industrial/various * entrepreneurs * food processing forensic science * garbage and recycling * government-city-county-state agencies health care-various * hospitality * human resources * media/videography * insurance industry sales/claims * interior design * landscape management * law enforcement manufacturing * marketing/promotions * medical fields * merchandising/retail meteorologist * mortgage brokers * musician * newspaper-various professions non-profit * nursing office support services * personnel services/placement photography * photography * physical fitness * public safety-fire/police/sheriff * radio public transit * real estate * remodeling/building * restaurant owner/catering retail management * senior care state hospital * travel/scuba

Related Topics

Bi-lingual career opportunities * dress for success * driver safety * entrepreneurs financial literacy-credit/banking/budgeting * interviewing skills * marketing a business professional etiquette * public speaking * resume writing tips/tools social media volunteerism/community service * what employers expect Ready to Learn Ready to Work is a partnership with Salem-Keizer Public Schools, E3, and the Salem Area and Keizer Chambers of Commerce.

* not an all-inclusive listing of careers and topics